

Lebanon, IL - City Alderman Biography

Reid A. Lilly holds a bachelor's degree in Culinary Arts and a master's degree in Food Science Nutrition and Health Promotion from Mississippi State University. He has owned a historical home in Lebanon, IL since 2014 during which he has been heavily involved in his community and surrounding municipalities actively supporting small business, churches, local sports, elections, public leaders, events, and volunteering in his community. Reid is excited to serve on the Lebanon, IL Alderman board and looking forward to making a positive impact on the city he calls home.